

Anastasia Argyrou, BA Theater, BA Theater Education, MFA Theater

Anastasia is an Educator, a theatre maker and an experienced public speaker. She holds a BA in Theatre and Educational studies, an MFA in Acting and is currently pursuing an MA in Education Policy. She attended university in the USA and the UK and has lived extensively on both sides of the transatlantic. Recently, Anastasia has joined StudyUSA to consult students on their applications, specifically for the US. Alternatively, Anastasia also helps students with their interview skills and building confidence in their public speaking skills. She believes in the power of communication and helps others find their voice through the power of words.